ORDER

Pending before the Court in the Newby case is a Stipulation (Instrument #729) filed by the parties in G-02-299, recently consolidated into H-01-3624, that states that they have agreed to an extension until June 12, 2002 of the deadline for Defendant J.P. Morgan Chase & Co. to respond to Lead Plaintiff's amended consolidated class action complaint.

742

The Court admonishes these parties and all others in these consolidated actions that they may not modify scheduling deadlines by stipulation, but must request leave of Court for any changes.

Nevertheless, because G-02-299 was consolidated into H-01-3624 just this week, too late to comply with the existing response deadline, and because it would be inequitable to deny an extension, the Court ORDERS that Defendant J.P. Morgan Chase & Company shall file a responsive pleading no later than June 12, 2002.

SIGNED at Houston, Texas, this 16th day of May, 2002.

MELINDA HARMON
UNITED STATES DISTRICT JUDGE
